There are no dates that are better or worse for me...but I will be taking time off around Thanksgiving and Christmas if that helps.

Thanks,
Kate

Hi Della and Kate-
We are actually trying to move this case to a new date so you won't even need to be on phone notice but I wanted to check your availability. It appears we are looking at the middle of November through January as a potential time period. I didn't know if there are better/worse dates for you.
Thanks,
Jessica

Hi Della and Kate-
I just wanted to touch base with you about this trial for next week in Salem Superior Court. I just received word that a necessary Detective has a family emergency so in all likelihood the case is not going to go. I know your schedules are crazy so I just wanted to give you the heads up. I don't want to officially call you off in case the court doesn't allow a new date but if phone notice works for you that would be great.

Thanks,
Jessica Strasnick
